

Dr. Sharon Harrison

---

Harrison Consulting Group

Sharon Harrison, EdD, Owner of Harrison Consulting Group a native of Northern Ireland, has lived in the US for 30 years. She has extensive experience and research on workforce with a particular emphasis on skill development. With over 30 years industry experience in training and development and workforce, Sharon helps to leverage industry engagement in project research and program implementation.

Her experience is in coordinating and developing workforce, training initiatives and designing skills curriculum for major corporations, public sector and non-profits both locally, nationally and internationally. Sharon leads her team to build grant proposals, project plans, reports, evaluation tools and recommendations that organize and simplify complex ideas into actionable strategies. In addition, Sharon and her team facilitate the workforce initiatives and events for the Oklahoma Manufacturing Alliance and Central Oklahoma Manufacturers Association.

Sharon was recognized as a leader by the Oklahoma Department of Rehabilitation for her efforts in helping those with disabilities in Oklahoma gain meaningful employment. Sharon earned an Ed.D. from the University of Glasgow, Scotland, focused on 'Perspectives on Skill in Manufacturing'.